HOME EQUITY LOANS

Thank you for inquiring about a Home Equity Loan from Rutgers Federal Credit Union. Once you have reviewed the following information, we are sure you will select Rutgers Federal Credit Union as your source for Home Equity Loans.

A Home Equity Loan (HELOC) from Rutgers Federal Credit Union is an open-end line of credit that is secured by a lien on your primary residence, single family home, which must be located in New Jersey. You may borrow up to 80% of the appraised value of your home, minus your first mortgage (a minimum of $5,000 in home equity is required).

ARE THERE ANY FEES?

Unlike many banks, Rutgers FCU does not charge any application fees, points, appraisal fees, or processing fees for your Home Equity Loan as long as the loan is not closed within one year.

WHAT IS THE INTEREST RATE ON MY HELOC?

For our current rate please visit <http://www.rutgersfcu.org/home/loans/loan-rates>

There is a maximum interest rate of 18% however, under no circumstances will your annual percentage rate go below 4.00% at any time during the term of the loan.

HOW OFTEN DOES THE INTEREST RATE CHANGE ON MY HELOC?

The HELOC interest rate can change on the first day of each month. There is no limit on the amount by which the annual percentage rate can change during any one year period.

HOW OFTEN CAN I BORROW ON MY HELOC?

You cannot receive more than three advances in any month. You may obtain advances of credit only during the first ten years of the loan. The initial minimum advance is $2,500.00.

HOW LONG DO I HAVE TO REPAY MY HELOC?

The maximum term is 15 years, however you can pay off the loan early with no penalty.

HOW DO I ACCESS MY HELOC?

Simply call the office and request a HELOC advance or utilize the checks provided. We will prepare an advance request voucher ready for your signature.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO PROCESS MY APPLICATION?

Approximately 7 to 21 days from the date of the first application. It is very important that you provide all the information requested so that delays can be avoided

WHEN WILL MY FUNDS BE AVAILABLE?

Your funds can be disbursed to you after a mandatory 3 day right of rescission (required by law). This means you have 3 days to cancel this loan without penalty. Your funds will be available to you by 10:00am on the 4th business day.

The information presented here is simply an overview of the Home Equity Loan program offered by your Credit Union. Rates and terms are subject to change. Additional information can be found at

THANK YOU FOR USING RUTGERS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

IMPORTANT TERMS OF OUR HOME EQUITY LINE OF CREDIT

This disclosure contains important information about our Home Equity Line of Credit. You should read it carefully and keep a copy for your records.

AVAILABILITY OF TERMS: All of the terms described below are subject to change. If these terms are changed (other than the Annual Percentage Rate) and you decide, as a result, not to enter into an agreement with us, you are entitled to a refund of any fees that you have paid to us or anyone else in connection with your application.

SECURITY INTEREST: We will take a mortgage on your home. You could lose your home if you do not meet the obligations in your agreement with us.

POSSIBLE ACTIONS: Under certain circumstances, we can (1) terminate your line, require you to pay us the entire outstanding balance in one payment, and charge you certain fees; (2) refuse to make additional extensions of credit; and (3) reduce your credit limit. If you ask, we will give you more specific information concerning when we can take these actions.

MINIMUM PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS: This is a revolving line-of-credit loan with a term of fifteen (15) years. You can obtain advances of credit only during the first ten (10) years ("draw period") which commences with the date of the signing of the Home Equity Loan Agreement. Payments will be due monthly. During the draw period, your minimum monthly payment will be the greatest of $25.00 or 1/180th of the outstanding balance plus accrued finance charges and any late fees or other charges provided for in this agreement. After the draw period ends, you will no longer be able to obtain credit advances and must pay the outstanding balances over five (5) years ("repayment period"). During the repayment period, payments will be due monthly. Your minimum monthly payment will equal 1/60th of the balance that was outstanding at the end of the draw period plus the finance charges that have accrued on the remaining balance.

MINIMUM PAYMENT EXAMPLE: If you made only the minimum monthly payments and took no other credit advances, it would take 15 years to payoff a credit advance of $10,000.00 at an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 10.95%. During that period, you would make 180 payments of $113.33.

FEES AND CHARGES: There is no application or processing fee.

MINIMUM DRAW AND BALANCE REQUIREMENT: The minimum initial credit advance you can receive is $2,500.00, after receiving the initial advance, you may borrow in amounts as small as $1,000.00. You cannot receive more than three advances in any month.

TAX DEDUCTIBILITY: You should consult a tax advisor regarding the deductibility of interest and charges for the line.

VARIABLE RATE INFORMATION: The loan has a variable rate feature and the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (corresponding to the periodic rate) and minimum payments can change as a result. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE includes only interest and not other costs.

The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is based upon the value of an index. The index is the highest Prime Lending Rate as set forth in the Money Rates Column of the Wall Street Journal newspaper. To determine the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE that we will apply to your line, we may add a margin to the value of the index.

Ask us for the current index value, margin and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. After you open a credit line, rate information will be provided on periodic statements that we will send to you.

RATE CHANGES: The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE can change on the first day of each month. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will never be greater than eighteen (18%) percent and will never be lower than four (4.00%).

MAXIMUM RATE AND PAYMENT EXAMPLE: If you had an outstanding balance of $10,000.00 during the draw period, the maximum monthly payment at the maximum ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 18% would be $158.74. This ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE could be reached during the first month of the draw period.

HISTORICAL EXAMPLE: The following table shows how the annual percentage rate and the minimum payments for a single $10,000.00 credit advance would have changed based on the changes in the index over the past 15 years. The index values are from 2011 through 2025. (While only one payment amount per year is shown, payments would have varied during each year.)

The table assumes that no additional credit advances were taken, that only the minimum payments were made, and that the rate remained constant during each year. It does not necessarily indicate how the index or your payment will change in the future.

Uniform Residential Loan Application

This application is designed to be completed by the applicant(s) with the Lender's assistance. Applicants should complete this form as "Borrower" or "Co-Borrower," as applicable. Co-Borrower information must also be provided (and the appropriate box checked) when the income or assets of a person other than the Borrower (including the Borrower's spouse) will be used as a basis for loan qualification or the income or assets of the Borrower's spouse or other person who has community property rights pursuant to state law will not be used as a basis for loan qualification, but his or her liabilities must be considered because the spouse or other person has community property rights pursuant to applicable law and Borrower resides in a community property state, the security property is located in a community property state, or the Borrower is relying on other property located in a community property state as a basis for repayment of the loan.

If this is an application for joint credit, Borrower and Co-Borrower each agree that we intend to apply for joint credit (sign below):

INSTRUCTIONS

Uniform Residential Loan Application

The lender uses this form to record relevant financial information about an applicant who applies for a conventional one- to four-family mortgage. Roman numerals in these instructions correspond to the sections on the form.

Lenders must use the PDF dated 6/09 for mortgage loans applications taken on or after July 1, 2010.

Copies

Original plus one.

Printing Instructions

We provide Form 1003 in an electronic format that prints as a letter size document. However, lenders may print Form 1003 as a legal size document or with different fonts or margins that may affect pagination; we have no specific standards for the number or size of pages the form may have. Consequently, the number and size of pages will not affect compliance with Fannie Mae requirements pertaining to use of the Uniform Residential Loan Application, provided that the content of the form has not been materially altered. When printing this form, you must use the "shrink to fit" option in the Adobe Acrobat print dialogue box.

Instructions

The lender may accept applications taken during a face-to-face interview, over the telephone, through the mail, or via the Internet. The lender should complete all blanks and attach any separate exhibits, details, or statements that are relevant to underwriting the mortgage. The borrower(s) must sign the original application at the time it is completed. If the application is taken over the telephone or via the Internet, the borrower(s) must sign the completed application as soon as possible thereafter. However, an electronic signature or facsimile of the borrower's signature is acceptable as indicated in the "Acknowledgment and Agreement" section of the application. The lender should retain the original application with the supporting information provided by the borrower(s). Before or at the loan closing, the borrower(s) must sign the final application that the lender prepares based on its verification of the information that the borrower(s) provided in the original application.

The instructions at the top of Form 1003 are consistent with the permissible inquiries that creditors are allowed to make under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA). Although ECOA permits the lender in a community property state to obtain information regarding the liabilities of a borrower's spouse even though he or she is not applying for the mortgage and his or her income will not be considered for loan qualification purposes, we do not require the lender to obtain the information. This also means that in states where another person shares community property rights with the applicant, the lender does not need to include information on that person's liabilities if he or she is not an applicant.

Note: The following instructions highlight certain sections of the form.

Introductory Statement

We recognize that the introductory paragraph of Form 1003 differs slightly from the introductory paragraph in the Uniform Residential Loan Application found on Freddie Mac's website, Freddie Mac Form 65. However, because we have determined that these differences are not material, Fannie Mae will deem either version to comply with our requirements for use of the Uniform Residential Loan Application.

INSTRUCTIONS, CONTINUED

V. Monthly Income and Combined Housing Expense Information

Gross Monthly Income: If the net cash flow for an investment property (or the monthly operating income for a two- to four-family property for which the applicant occupies one of the units as a principal residence) is a positive number on the Operating Income Statement (Form 216), it should be listed as "net rental income." If it is a negative number, it must be included in the applicant's monthly obligations.

Combined Monthly Housing Expense: The present monthly housing expenses for the borrower and the co-borrower should be listed on a combined basis. The proposed monthly housing expense for a two- to four-family property in which the applicant will occupy a unit as a principal residence should reflect the monthly payment (PITI) for the subject property. For all one-unit investment properties and all two- to four-family properties in which the applicant will not occupy one of the units, the present monthly housing expense should reflect the applicant's principal residence.

VI. Assets and Liabilities

When the borrower's and co-borrower's assets and liabilities are not sufficiently joined to make a combined statement meaningful, a separate Statement of Assets and Liabilities (Form 1003A) should be completed for the co-borrower.

VII. Details of Transaction

The purchase price shown on Line "a" under the "Details of Transaction" should not include any discounts or rebates or other allowances paid or allowed to the purchaser. For refinancing, the amount being refinanced should be shown on Line "d" -- Refinance. The figure should include the total amount of all existing liens plus the costs of improvements that have been -- or will be -- made. Lines "a", "b", and "c" should not be used to describe a refinance transaction.

VIII. Declarations

Noncitizen Applicants: If an applicant indicates in his response to Question J that he is not a U.S. citizen, and also indicates in his response to Question K that he is not a permanent resident alien, the lender may wish to ask whether he is a nonpermanent resident alien or otherwise is lawfully present in the United States. Fannie Mae will purchase loans where the borrower is not a U.S. citizen provided that the borrower is lawfully present in the United States. We do not designate specific documentation that is required to establish lawful presence. Lenders should consult their counsel or other sources for information on standard documents that can be used to establish lawful presence. An Individual Tax Identification Number (ITIN) alone does not establish either that the holder is lawfully present or that he is not lawfully present. Fannie Mae does not require that the borrower have a Social Security Number.

Determining First-Time Homebuyers: The loan can be considered a loan to a first-time homebuyer if any of the applicants is an individual who (1) is purchasing the security property, (2) will reside in the security property, and (3) had no ownership interest (sole or joint) in a residential property during the three-year period preceding the date of the purchase of the security property, unless he or she is a displaced homemaker or single parent whose only ownership interest in a principal residence during the preceding three-year time period was a joint ownership with a spouse. (A displaced homemaker or single parent who during the three-year period owned a principal residence alone or with anyone other than a spouse, or who owned a second home or investment property, cannot be considered a first-time homebuyer.)

A displaced homemaker is an adult who:

- has not worked full time in the labor force for several years
- has worked in the home to care for the home and family during that time, and
- is currently unemployed or underemployed and is having difficulty finding or upgrading employment

A single parent is a person who is unmarried or legally separated from his or her spouse and is pregnant or has custody (including joint custody) of one or more minor children.

The responses to questions in the Declarations section described below will enable lenders to determine whether an applicant qualifies as a first-time homebuyer. Note that if there is more than one applicant, only one of the applicants has to qualify for first-time homebuyer status in order for the mortgage to be considered a mortgage to a first-time homebuyer.

Instructions for translating these responses into a single "first-time homebuyer indicator" that can be reported to us when the mortgage is submitted for purchase or securitization follow.

Question	Responses
Question L: Do you intend to occupy the property as your primary residence?	If all of the applicants respond "No" to Question L, the applicants will be using the property as a second home or as an investment property, and thus cannot be considered first-time homebuyers. If any of the applicants respond "Yes" to Question L, review each response to Question M to determine if any of them is a first time homebuyer.
Question M: Have you had an ownership interest in a property in the last three years?	If any of the applicants responds "No" to Question M, the mortgage can be considered a mortgage to a first-time homebuyer. If all of the applicants respond, "Yes" to Question M, review each response to the two subsections of Question M to determine if any of the applicants is a first time homebuyer.
Question M--Subsection 1: What type of property did you own--principal residence (PR), second home (SH), or investment property (IP)?	If all of the applicants respond that they owned a second home or investment property, the mortgage cannot be considered a mortgage to a first-time homebuyer. If any of the applicants responds that he or she owned a principal residence, review that applicant's response to subsection two of Question M to determine if he or she is a first time homebuyer.
Question M--Subsection 2: How did you hold title to the home--solely by yourself (S), jointly with your spouse (SP), or jointly with another person (O)?	If all of the applicants who indicated that they owned a principal residence respond that they owned it alone or with a person other than a spouse, the mortgage cannot be considered a mortgage to a first-time homebuyer. If any of the applicants who indicated that they owned a principal residence responds that it was owned jointly with a spouse, review "Section III. Borrower Information" on Page 1 of Form 1003 to determine the marital status and number of dependents for each applicant who so responded. If the information on page 1 indicates that the applicant is a displaced homemaker or a single parent, he or she qualifies as a first time homebuyer. If any of the applicants who indicated that the principal residence was owned jointly with a spouse has a marital status of "unmarried" or "separated" and has dependents, he or she can be considered a first-time homebuyer.
"Marital Status" and "Number of Dependents" in Section III. Borrower Information	If any of the applicants who indicated that the principal residence was owned jointly with a spouse is an adult who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • has not worked full time in the labor force for several years • has worked in the home to care for the home and family during this time, and • is currently unemployed or underemployed and is having difficulty finding or upgrading employment, he or she is a displaced homemaker and qualifies as a first time homebuyer.

The following may be added to Section IX: Acknowledgment and Agreement at the end of the paragraph.

Right to Receive Copy of Appraisal.

I/We have the right to a copy of the appraisal report used in connection with this application for credit. To obtain a copy, I/we must send Lender a written request at the mailing address Lender has provided. Lender must hear from me/us no later than 90 days after Lender notifies me/us about the action taken on this application, or I/we withdraw this application.

X. Information for Government Monitoring Purposes

This section is included to aid the federal government in monitoring compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing and home mortgage disclosure laws. Supplying this information is strictly voluntary on the part of the applicant, but lenders should ask all applicants to provide it, including those who apply by telephone and through the Internet, and should describe the reason for collecting this data. Race and ethnicity are separate categories, and although the lender should ask applicants to furnish information for both, applicants may furnish one but not the other. Note that there is no longer a place for applicants to indicate race as "Other" but applicants may check as many races as apply.

The Home Mortgage Disclosure Act and its implementing Regulation C generally require Lenders to collect sex, race and ethnicity data on all applications.

When an application is taken in person and an applicant elects not to provide some or all of this information, federal law requires the lender to note the applicant's sex, ethnicity, and race on the form, based on the lender's visual observation or the applicant's surname. To aid in identifying applicants who may be of Hispanic ethnicity and who elect not to self-identify, the lender may wish to consult the list of Spanish surnames developed by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Furthermore, the lender may wish to advise the applicant that he may complete or change the information in this section after the application is approved, at any time up until closing.

To Be Completed By Interviewer

The interviewer must complete this portion of the form to indicate the method used to take the application and to provide the name and telephone number of the interviewer, as well as his or her employer's name and address.

To Be Completed By Loan Originator (for PDF dated 06/09 for mortgage loans applications taken on or after January 1, 2010)

The loan originator must complete this portion of the form to indicate the method used to take the application and to provide the loan originator's name, ID, and telephone number, as well as his or her employer's name, company ID, and address. Further details regarding implementation and exceptions are detailed in Announcement 09-21.

Continuation Sheet/Residential Loan Application

Lenders may amend this section by including space to evidence intent to apply for joint credit. Other approaches, such as including this information on a separate document, are also acceptable to Fannie Mae, provided they meet the requirements of applicable law. Lenders should consult counsel to determine their alternatives.

Special Notice for Balloon Mortgages

For each balloon mortgage, the lender must insert a special notice regarding the nature of the balloon features on Form 1003 or in a separate attachment to the form. If an attachment is used, the borrower(s) must sign the attachment. The following language must be inserted, using capital letters:

"THIS LOAN MUST EITHER BE PAID IN FULL AT MATURITY OR REFINANCED TO A MARKET LEVEL FIXED-RATE MORTGAGE. YOU MUST REPAY THE ENTIRE PRINCIPAL BALANCE OF THE LOAN AND UNPAID INTEREST THEN DUE IF YOU DO NOT QUALIFY FOR THE CONDITIONAL RIGHT TO REFINANCE AS SPECIFIED IN THE NOTE ADDENDUM AND MORTGAGE RIDER. THE LENDER IS UNDER NO OBLIGATION TO REFINANCE THE LOAN IF QUALIFICATION CONDITIONS ARE NOT MET. YOU WILL, THEREFORE, BE REQUIRED TO MAKE PAYMENT OUT OF OTHER ASSETS THAT YOU MAY OWN, OR YOU WILL HAVE TO FIND A LENDER, WHICH MAY BE THE LENDER YOU HAVE THIS LOAN WITH, WILLING TO LEND YOU THE MONEY. IF YOU REFINANCE THIS LOAN AT MATURITY, YOU MAY HAVE TO PAY SOME OR ALL OF THE CLOSING COSTS NORMALLY ASSOCIATED WITH A NEW LOAN EVEN IF YOU OBTAIN REFINANCING".

For California Applications

California Civil Code 1812.30 (j) requires that credit applications clearly specify that the applicant, if married, may apply for a separate account. This requirement is not inconsistent with the language at the beginning of Form 1003.

Lenders may revise the description of the "Married" box in Section III for Borrowers and Co-Borrowers by adding "(includes registered domestic partners)." If lenders are unable to insert the language due to the format of the form, this language may be added to the continuation sheet or included as an attachment to Form 1003.
